Graefenburg Baptist Ministry
Activity Center Gym!

Hey HOSANNA HOUSE FAMILIES!

After a long dark out it is finally time to get ready! I trust you had an AMAZING holiday season celebrating with your own families. And now it is time to celebrate with us!

I am so excited about 2012! 2012 is going to be an historical and exciting year for Hosanna House! We have a brand new colorful Hosanna House space in Graefenburg Baptist's Ministry Activity Center! And we have a beautifully designed new Hosanna House set! This set was designed by our own, Daniel Nation and new friend to Hosanna House, Russell Mendez. Russell is a professional set builder from Frankfort that works as the technical director at Balagula Theatre in Lexington and has built sets for Lexington Children's Theatre. Russell oversaw an awesome team of our Hosanna House family that built the set and did base coat painting and then Russell came in to do all the beautiful details! You will be amazed!

We will also be getting new sound, video and stage lights! Pray for our tech crew as they work out all the details and try to secure money. ☺ We hope to have some of these items before our Hosanna House Extreme Makeover Honor Edition. Know that we will be making each and every Hosanna House better as the year goes on as well nest in our new home!

I hope you and your family will JOIN US for a Historical Hosanna House Extreme Makeover: Honor Edition at 6PM! We will also have a light supper and fellowship at 5:30. Donations are appreciated to cover the cost of the food. This will be our Hosanna House for the months of January and February. Then we will be in full swing for March! So, come go with me to Hosanna House where we come to sing, play and learn about we all are a part of God's Big Picture!
